

Rooted in Confidence

A Mother-Daughter
Night with

Kari Kampakis

Sunday, March 9 | 5-7:30 pm
FUMC Dothan Fellowship Hall

Moms, daughters, and grandmothers—Come together for a night of honestly facing our insecurities, embracing empathy, and strengthening one another.

At Rooted in Confidence, nationally recognized author and speaker, Kari Kampakis, will share wisdom on raising confident girls and trusting God with our children. This special evening will include:

- An opening talk on Becoming a Confident Girl with Kari
- Breakout sessions – Moms with Kari & Daughters with Lee Ann Boykin
- Dinner, fellowship, and encouragement
- Book signing and photo opportunities – books will be available for purchase or you can bring your own book with you.

Mothers know their daughters best. This event is appropriate for any age, if she is old enough to pay attention through a 45-minute talk. It is designed for mothers, daughters and grandmothers (alone or together). Though all are welcome, most commonly, we see girls in 4th grade and up. Dinner and nursery (birth through kindergarten) are provided.

Tickets are $12 per person through February 26. Get them at fumcdothan.org/kari/
